If the addition is approved on, for example, Tuesday (in a normal week without public holidays), the addition will take effect on Monday of the following week at 13:00.

Delays in Kyoto Protocol accounts (account numbers FI-120- and FI-121-)

Delay when transferring to an account on the trusted accounts list

Initiation of the transfer (calculated from approval)	Completion of the transfer
Mon–Thu before 11:00	Day +1 at 13:00
Mon–Thu between 11:00 and 17:00	Day +1 Initiation time +2 h
Mon–Thu after 17:00	Day +2 at 13:00
Fri before 11:00	Mon at 13:00
Fri between 11:00 and 17:00	Mon initiation time +2 h
Fri at 17:00–Mon at 11:00	Tue at 13:00

The delay is always at least 26 hours. Weekends and public holidays are not included in the delay time.

The main rule for calculating the delay is that the transfer is completed on the business day following the transfer, but 2 hours later than the initiation time of the transfer. If the transfer is initiated at a time other than between 11:00 and 17:00 on a weekday, the 26-hour delay time will not begin until 11:00 on the following weekday.

Examples:

- The transfer is initiated on Tuesday at 12:00, so it will be completed the following day on Wednesday at 14:00.
- The transfer is initiated on Thursday at 17:02, but since it is initiated after 17:00, the calculation of the transfer's delay will not begin until Friday at 11:00. As this is just before the weekend, the transfer will be completed on Monday at 13:00.
- The transfer is initiated on May Day eve, 30 April at 12:00, so it will not be completed until 2 May at 14:00.

It is not possible to make a transfer from a Kyoto Protocol account to an account that is not on the trusted accounts list.
